Review	Feedback from Sue Sanderson My thoughts are not happy with it: it splits my ward and division. Lower Allithwaite parish is split which will mean six councillors attending their meetings! and it does not really reflect community ties. For example our three churches have been together now two are in one ward and one in another. Confidentially I do not think 3 member wards suit rural areas, but if we kept election by thirds we were stuck with 3 member wards. We were told there could be variance but that has not happened. We have very high turnouts for elections so there was not a problem with that and the number imbalances happen because building takes place outside the parks so we keep being picked up by the Commission and will continue to do so.
